

Designated Drivers and Army Values

What do they have in common?

Plenty!

Loyalty - to friends, family, and unit.

Duty - taking on an obligation to protect others.

Respect - for the rest of society and those who share the roads.

Selfless Service - personal sacrifice for the good of others.

Honor - keeping their promise to be the sober driver in the group.

Integrity - doing the right thing because it needs doing.

Personal Courage - ignoring those who belittle or try to tempt them from their commitment to safeguard lives.
